Matthew Burman specialises in public and private law proceedings under the Children Act 1989.

He is regularly instructed to represent Local Authorities, parents and Children's Guardians in care proceedings at all stages of the process from first to final hearing. In private law proceedings, Matthew regularly acts for mothers and fathers as well as 'Rule 16.4' Guardians. Matthew is often available to attend court at short notice. He ensures that his professional clients are updated promptly after every hearing and is also available to provide ad hoc advice between hearings as required. Matthew is also well versed in proceedings under the Family Law Act 1996 including applications for Non-Molestation Orders, Occupation Orders and transfers of tenancy.

Matthew accepts instructions under Direct Access.

After completing Bar school in 2007, Matthew worked as a paralegal at a number of Magic Circle city firms before working as an outdoor clerk for a high street family law firm. Matthew undertook pupillage in London before spending several years developing his family law practice in St Albans, Hertfordshire. He joined New Court Chambers in September 2017.
